From there I could see the city from above, with sweeping views ranging from the Statue of Liberty to midtown Manhattan. I had pictures and exact locations in mind as I wrote, for all of the places Rosalba and Abuela visit in the story. My grandmother, like the story's Abuela, grew up primarily speaking a language other than English.

Everyone has stories to tell... - Arthur Dorros

I have always liked words, pictures, and books. I started out eating a few. Perhaps someone said, "Here, read this," and I misunderstood and thought they said, "Here, eat this." I knew nothing more about books than your little brother or sister, or perhaps you did as a baby. I wasn't born a writer. Like...
