Grasshopper On The Road I

Grasshopper sets out on the sort of road trip that a child would be fortunate to experience every day. He encounters a myriad of creatures who make up part of the non human population of Earth. The worm, housefly, mosquito, dragonfly and butterflies all have their own idiosyncrasies and patiently explain to Grasshopper the logic of their actions.

"Grasshopper" is an allegory of Everyman on the road of life, and our leggy protagonist runs into bugs with all kinds of personality quirks. He meets beetle zealots, a histrionic worm, a narcissistic mosquito, a clean-freak housefly, and obsessive-compulsive butterflies. Grasshopper deals with all of them with grace, style, and perfect self-composure.
