The Sig Sauer P365 Nitron changed the game and is pretty much every gunbroker's best 9mm micro-compact right now. It's an open secret. But is it the best sub-compact in the gun store? Well the novelty of this icon has worn off slightly, and the fact we have a Sig P365 XL at all suggests that maybe that gun is too small for ham-fisted types.

The size of a compact 9mm CCW is a great starting point for most people. It's large enough for your hand still fits on the grip without having the dangling pinky, it offers an accessory rail so you can add a flashlight if you want to be tacticool or actually use it, and it holds a few more rounds than a subcompact semiautomatic pistol.
